

How to write a blog entry

(C) korny.brot (<https://www.flickr.com/photos/12348711@N02/1397015149>)

Step 1:

Use the following websites (p.2) to find out more about human right violations and take notes. You can choose the topics you are most interested in, but you have to read at least three of the blog entries.

Step 2: Have a look at these blog entries again and make a list with DOs and DON'Ts (p.1).

Dos	DON'Ts

topics and links	facts
Ending child poverty is a policy choice  https://www.unicef.org/blog/ending-child-poverty-is-policy-choice
On Peace, Justice & Structural Violence  https://cpcs.wp.st-andrews.ac.uk/people/student-reflective-blogs/
Black Lives Matter – Being an Ally  https://blog.westminster.ac.uk/international/black-lives-matter-beinganally/
BLM – A movement or a moment?  https://blog.bham.ac.uk/business-school/2020/09/04/black-lives-matter-a-movement-or-a-moment
Changing the world  https://www.amnesty.org/en/latest/campaigns/2021/10/think-you-cant-change-the-world-you-already-have/
On the Engender (#MeToo)  https://www.engender.org.uk/news/blog/guest-blog-metoo-just-how-tedious-can-it-get/	